Important Information: The information contained within this flyer is general advice only and does not take into account your personal needs and objectives. You should not act upon any information without first seeking professional advice and reading the Product Disclosure Statement available from TradeInsure.

Equita Financial Services Pty Ltd trading as TradeInsure is an authorised representative of Synchron - Australian Financial Services Licence No. 243313. Advice on life insurance products including income protection, life insurance, trauma & TPD insurance, business expense insurance and key person insurance is provided under this licence. Quotes on public liability and tool insurance are provided by third parties on a referral basis only, as we are not licensed to provide personal advice on these products.

* The 10% no claim bonus is only payable on life insurance products and does not apply to public liability or tool insurance. 10% of the gross premium will be paid to you via cheque in the event that you hold your new insurance for a full twelve month period without cancelling for any reason, and you do not make any claims on your policy for that period. The no claim bonus applies to the first year only and is not payable for any subsequent period.
