Training and Assessment to suit your business

Do you want tailored training for your team?

TAFE is now offering a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment tailored specifically for the Engineering and Manufacturing Industries.

With assistance from the Federal Government this program is now being delivered for a total cost of $300.00 per participant. There are only 20 places available so you must act immediately!

This program will be delivered over a 3-month period, with a combination of on and off the job training.

Ask us about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Using your existing skills, you may be eligible for RPL which means you can fast track through various units of competency and obtain your qualification faster.
