

TOWNSVILLE

Firing On All Cylinders

With more than 168,000 people attending last year's V8 Supercar race and tickets for 2010 selling at unprecedented speed, what better time to showcase the opportunities that abound in Townsville and North Queensland.

Boasting one of the most diverse economies in regional Australia, Townsville has experienced continual growth over the past decade. Australia's largest garrison city is gearing up for the next phase of growth. With major defence, infrastructure and construction projects in place, Townsville is emerging as a progressive, sustainable powerhouse.

Townsville Enterprise, in conjunction with the Defence Reserves Support, will shine a light on our dynamic city at a special corporate breakfast on the first day of the Sucrogen Townsville 400 event.

We welcome Former Chief of Defence and Australian of the Year in 2001, General Peter Cosgrove AC, MC as our special guest.

From his leadership of Townsville based troops in East Timor to the recovery taskforce in the wake of Cyclone Larry, General Cosgrove has a unique connection with North Queensland.

Cr Les Tyrell, Mayor, Townsville City Council leads an impressive list of additional speakers including Sucrogen Business Development Manager, Shayne Rutherford, V8 Supercars Australia CEO, Martin Whittaker, Commander 11 Brigade, Brigadier Peter Jeffrey RFD and Defence Reserves Support Council - North Queensland Regional Chair, Neville Brown.

Join us for this exclusive opportunity to network with these key community and industry leaders.
